Smart Farmer is an online platform to understand plant or crop health instantly. The Farmers now have easy process to identify and understand the plant condition. They just need to open app, take an image of the plant. The App will do the image processing and recognition to identify the plant identified disease or health condition. If Plant health seems to be bad, the app would also give remedies to take precautions or bring back the plant to normal condition in the form of reports.